Even after four decades in the industry, markets like today can be disconcerting. A colleague shared this sentiment, and he is absolutely correct: “Every day, millions of us go to work solving problems, enhancing productivity, and inventing new solutions. It’s the greatest army of economic growth ever assembled. It may lurch and stumble, but has always pushed ahead.” This article reminds us of how markets perform over the long term, and investing continues to require a long-term time horizon.
